

THIS BOY OF NINE IS A MODEST HERO

Little George Ferone Helped His Mother, Sisters and Brothers Escape from Fire, but Insists That's Nothing.

CARRIED OUT A SMALL CHILD

"I Ups and Grabs Me Little Sister Wot's Sick, He Says, "But Wouldn't Any Feller Take Care of His Sister and Mudder?"

George Ferone is a hero, but he does not lay claim to the title. He says he is not a hero at all. George is only nine years old and lives with his six little brothers and sisters on the top floor of a crowded tenement at No. 414 West Thirty-ninth street.

There was a fire last night on the top floor of the tenement and through the efforts of the little Italian hero all the members of the Ferone family were saved.

"I ain't no hero," said George to an Evening World reporter to-day. "I just brought my sisters out on the sidewalk so they wouldn't be burnt up. Ida, the baby, has diphtheria and I was takin' care of her while my mudder was sleepin'. Someone came up the stairs and commenced to pound on de door and boiler 'Fire,' so I ups and grabs me little sister wot's sick, wraps a blanket around her, gives me mudder de tip dat de house is on fire, carries de baby out on de sidewalk and den goes up for de rest."

"Me mudder she was scared, but I made her start down stairs with some of de kids and I grabbed the littlest one and held de blanket tight so they wouldn't get burned."

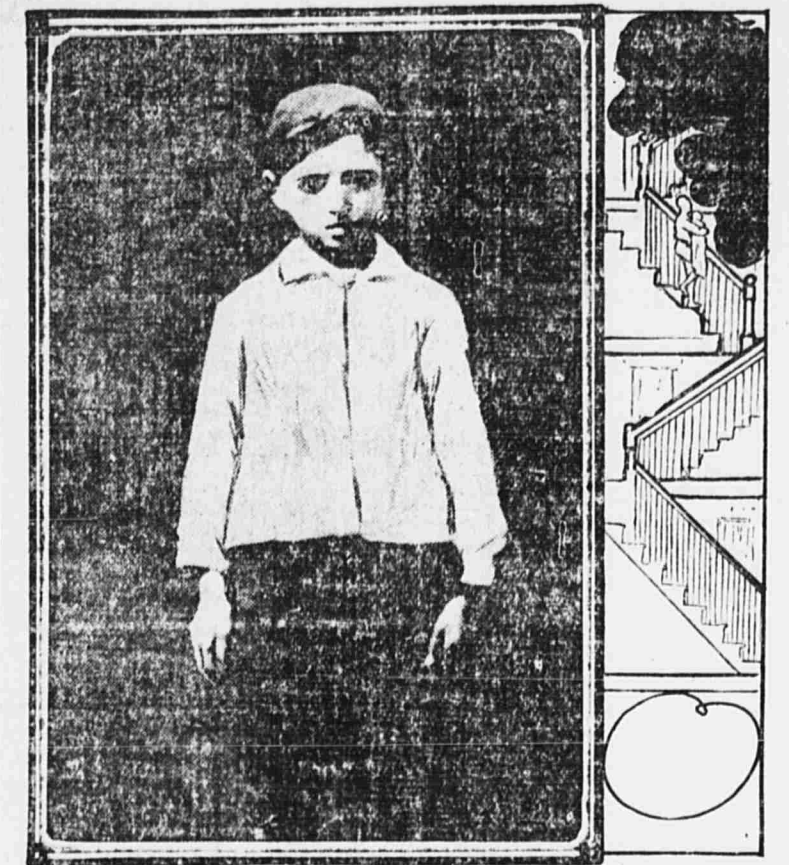

"I ain't no hero. Wouldn't any feller take care of his little s-s-s and his mudder? I guess it's a good thing I made me mudder take a rest last night while I mended 'da, or we might have been burned up."

The fire which aroused the tenement was in the front apartment on the top floor. It was discovered by Mrs. K. W. who lives in the apartment below. She says she saw the janitor, Carmine Malambra, coming out of the burning rooms and on the sidewalk pointed him out to Policeman Meyer, who took him to the West Thirty-ninth street station.

All the tenants in the building reached the street in safety, and before the fire could spread to other parts of the building it was under control by the firemen.

At the scene of the fire and excitement this George Ferone was the hero, as the Ferone apartment was the most difficult of access, and it was only owing to the boy's bravery that the six small boys and brothers were saved.

JUMEL ESTATE IN POLICE COURT

Famous Property Lands Two Men Who Tried to Sell it in Limbo on Complaint of Mrs. Ryan, Another Claimant.

John W. Tygard, who claims to hold title to the old Jumel estate, consisting of property in Harlem, the Bronx and Saratoga, and who was arrested yesterday when trying to dispose of part of the Bronx property, was today held in $250 bail for examination by Magistrate Barlow in the Centre Street Court. Alfred Behrens, Tygard's broker, who was also arrested, was also held.

The complaint against the two men is made by Mrs. Ella Ryan, of No. 123 Second avenue, who claims to be the recognized owner of the property involved. She was offered $50,000 for the property, so she agreed, and refused to sell it. A few weeks ago she would-be purchasers, Mr.

Behrens, were waited upon by Tygard and Behrens, who assured them that Tygard was the real owner. Tygard was willing to sell for $50,000. Mrs. Ryan was notified and caused the arrest of both men.

When arraigned before Magistrate Barlow Tygard and Behrens insisted upon an immediate examination, stating Tygard's title to the property in question had been declared sound by the United States Supreme Court. As no representative of the District Attorney's office was in court, Magistrate Barlow adjourned the examination until Monday. Both defendants furnished bail.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—In order to be able to respond to numerous inquiries Commissioner Richards, of the General Land Office, has had made an investigation into the character of the Chippewa Indian lands in Minnesota, which are to be opened to entry and settlement on Nov. 10.

MINCE PIE! WELSH RABBIT!

Can You Eat 'Em Whenever You Like, or Do They Frighten You?

There is no reason why any ordinary mortal should not eat anything he chooses—if he chews it carefully.

How about you?
Are you afraid of every good-looking, good-smelling, good-tasting thing on the bill of fare—because it "don't agree with you"? Do you meet your Waterloo at mince pie and Welsh rabbit?

Then listen:
Don't starve yourself. Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia. If you cut off every article of food that disagrees with you, before long you will have nothing left. The sensible way is to get your stomach in such a condition that you can eat everything and digest it.

We have a new remedy that will do this.
